Intuitive counselor to the stars

Carmon Harris is an expert at celebrity predictions. From the 2005 split of Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston to the recent engagement and marriage of Kim Kardashian, the author and intuitive counselor has foreseen some of the biggest tabloid stories. Soon to have her own reality show, Harris — who penned the popular books Everyday Karma and The Eleven Eternal Principles — shared with us her latest star forecasts.

Beyoncé: "I love that she's private. The relationship with her and [Jay-Z] is really good. They were meant to be together; think she's going to have a boy. But she won't release the information to the press — she'll keep it to herself."

Kim Kardashian: "She's desperate to become a mom. I see that happening pretty fast."

Jennifer Aniston: "She's happier now [with Justin Theroux] than she's ever been. Though I still think the karma with [Pitt] has never been resolved. It's one of the reasons that she keeps on looking back. She continues to hold something for Brad, that one day he'll come back to her. She's not totally free. Unless she's 100 percent fulfilled, no matter who comes in her life, there will always be something missing."

George Clooney: "I don't know if he'll ever settle down. He must have been some kind of monkey in another life, jumping from tree to tree. It will take years for him to commit. I used to coach one of his girlfriends, Krista Allen, who had a son. What a hard time he had accepting that she had a baby from another relationship... She even said she doesn't think he would ever be able to become a dad."

Britney Spears: "She'll get married again. Despite her troubled past, she wants to be stable. She's working hard on herself. Being a mom helps her. I think she'll get better and have another baby. Not right away — maybe in two or three years. But she's finally found her balance."

Tiger Woods: "He's devastated by what he did. He will never be the same Tiger. Now he's waking up, but I don't see him healing from his past."

Charlie Sheen: "I think he has a serious addiction problem so I'm not sure if he'll come back to TV. But people are drawn to him."

Jennifer Lopez: "She won't get back with Marc Anthony. She wanted to marry it work, but now she knows it won't. She will actually marry eight times; she's the next Elizabeth Taylor."
